Foreign countries continue to take increasing amounts of American agricultural implements under the operations of the McKinley Tariff. For the ten months ending October 31st, 1891, we sold these goods abroad to the value of $2,885,862.

For the corresponding period in 1892 our exports of agricultural implements were valued at $3,781,828.

Boston had more newspapers forty years ago than now. But the modern newspaper is about as large as the whole lot were forty years ago.

Calvin S. Brice of New York, Senator from Ohio, is so weighted down with the old-fashioned "Jeffersonian simplicity" that he keeps thirty servants in his Washington house to help him remain a plain man of the people.

What petty speculators the Brooklyn Aldermen are. Out of the total appropriation of $50,000 for the Columbian celebration, supplemented by $10,000 from the Supervisors, they managed to deflect only about $10,000 to their own purses and stomachs.

An accurate indication of the depressed condition of trade in Free-trade England is the fact that the percentage of unemployed members of the twenty-two principal trades unions during last November was 8.27. The percentage of those out of work in the same month the year previous was only 3.81, and in November, 1890, only 2.40.

Friends of Mr. Platt were chaffing him about Mr. Cleveland's return of the pass of the United States Express Company which Mr. Platt had mailed to him as a courtesy.

"I have a great admiration," said Mr. Platt, with a dry smile, "for the consistency of a man who returns a little express frank and accepts the gift of a special train."

Mr. Platt alluded to Mr. Cleveland's recent trip to Hog Island. Upon that occasion he availed himself of a special train which was placed at his disposal by the Pennsylvania Railroad.

Mr. Cleveland's administration will either be a tremendous success or a colossal failure. Here are some of the questions Mr. Cleveland and the Democratic party will be compelled to grapple with:

- Revision of the Tariff.
- Silver.
- Immigration.
- New States.
- Annexation of Canada.
- Nicaragua Canal.
- The Behring Sea matter.

Not since the war has any administration had greater responsibilities. It is of the utmost importance that Mr. Cleveland should have an exceptionally strong man at the head of the State Department.

The Newport Journal is moved to say that if the accounts of the utterances of Sam Jones, given in The Hopkinsville Kentuckian, are true, then the Grand Jury of Christian county ought to indict him for public indecency. Three specimens will be sufficient to convict him: "If I was a woman, I would rather sleep with a wet dog than an old whisky soak." "I'd rather try and make a skunk stink by putting something on him, than to try to slander a saloon-keeper." "Some widows(?) with breeches on talk about giving a widow's mite." And that sort of vulgar blackguardism is done in the name of religion, is listened to by thousands, and encouraged by those who would be ashamed to use the language used in the pulpit by this blaspheming mountebank unrebuked.

It is safe to say that if any regular Preacher in Maysville would use such language in his pulpit, one-half his congregation would leave the house—and the other half ought to.

THE Chesapeake and Ohio Railway for the six months ending December 31st earned all fixed charges and a surplus of $400,000. Included in the operating expenses for the six months are an entire year's supply of rails and ties, and a large amount for filling trestles, ballast and other permanent work. Improvements of the last four years have brought the road up to the highest standard, and it is now demonstrating what its friends have always claimed for it, that when thoroughly modernized, as it now is, it can be operated cheaper than any other road in the country by reason of its low grades and exceptional location.

THE C. AND O. WRECK.

Three Men Injured and Two Locomotives Completely Demolished.

The C. and O. wreck, as briefly chronicled in yesterday's Ledger, is more atrocious than at first reported.

The scene of the collision was at the beech woods, between South Ripley and Dover. At this place there is a heavy curve in the road and it was impossible to discover the danger in time to stop the engines and prevent a smashup.

The blame, if we have been correctly informed, rests upon the engineer of the freight with which the accommodation collided, his watch having been twenty-two minutes slow, and in consequence his train running on the passenger's time.

The trains were each running at the rate of thirty-five miles an hour, and the engineers, grasping the situation at a glance, realized that a collision was unavoidable and jumped from their cabs, or they would both perhaps have been instantly killed and badly mangled.

The two locomotives went together with terrific force. As they struck each was raised several feet above the track, derailling both. They are almost complete wrecks, the whole head ends being knocked out and the rods, &c., bent and broken in almost every conceivable manner. Several cars were also damaged, but only slightly.

There were but few passengers aboard, and none of them were injured except being badly frightened and slightly shaken up by the heavy jar.

Those injured are: Arch L. Scudder, Express Messenger, who is well known among our citizens generally, received cuts about the head which are not serious; T. W. Placard of this city, Superintendent of pumps on the Cincinnati Division, was slightly injured; Charley Hall, also of this city, who was at the throttle of the passenger engine, was considerably shaken up, caused by his leap from the locomotive. He came up on No. 2 and was assisted to the street car, which conveyed him to his home on Second street.

About five hours' time was consumed in clearing the wreck. No. 17 remained here, No. 1 at South Ripley and No. 2 at Dover until the track was pronounced clear.

Dr. Hale's Household Tea is a pleasant herb drink which positively cures dyspepsia, liver complaint and all kidney diseases. One dose a day, taken at bed time, does the business. 25 and 50 cents a package. Get it to-day at Power & Reynolds, druggists.

Cold Wave.

The Signal Service will send us another cold wave to-night. Such is the cheerful news received by Postmaster Davis this morning.

The thermometer throughout the city exhibited marks bordering on zero. The icy wave due to-night will probably send the mercury lower than it has been for many years.

The river is still closed tight at this point.

New Coal Fields.

Ashland News.—Out in the lower Flat Woods coal mining is fast becoming the principal industry, and almost every resident of that section has found some spot on his premises where a fine quality of coal may be secured. In many places the coal crops out of the hillsides, and it requires but little work to get it out. Others have to enter the hills a considerable distance, but in every instance the quality is almost the same, and fairly good. Most of the product is disposed of in this city at a price considerably lower than that of the Big Sandy article.

Youthful Tramps.

Augusta Vindicator.—Two boys, one about 16 and the other 12 years of age, struck town the other evening and told a pitiful story of their hardships. They said they were on their way from Richmond to Cincinnati, and that they had walked 160 miles of the distance, traveling the other portion by stealing rides in box cars. Being very poorly clad they were nearly chilled to death when they reached here. Kind citizens took an interest in the young fellows and procured them a night's lodging and meals at the hotel, besides giving them money enough to pay their fare to Cincinnati, where they had relatives.

A Commanding Nuisance.

It is not an unusual occurrence to see some heartless driver of a cart, dray or other conveyances unmercifully beating, kicking and jerking the poor dumb brute which he is driving.

The poor brutes stand and take the terrible punishment administered by these men, not knowing why it is inflicted. Men who treat their horses so cruelly should be boycotted by merchants, and others who have hauling to be done, and besides there should be a severe penalty attached.

The city cannot well afford to elect, and pay an officer a sufficient amount to justify him in devoting his entire time to looking after this matter as is done in the larger cities, and it would be a good idea to impose this upon the policeman, who could attend to it.

A few fines judiciously administered would do much towards remedying this inhuman practice, which is becoming more and more common.

A mule has a reputation for stubbornness, but when he backs a 1,500 pound load of merchandise within six inches of the place intended he doesn't deserve a beating.
